

Sweet Tarragon

Good things never seemed so good.

About

Sweet Tarragon, based in Pottstown, PA, is the creative partnership between Danielle A. Nelson and Meredith Lynn Matthews. Their hand-crafted jewelry and accessories incorporate a variety of mediums, including sterling silver, gemstones, leather, copper, Swarovski® crystals, glass, plated silver and gold, pewter, and hemp. Prices range from $5-$175.

Where to Buy

Products are available online at SweetTarragon.com and at festivals and craft shows throughout Eastern Pennsylvania; the current event schedule is available on the website. Visa, Mastercard, and personal checks are accepted at all in-person events.

Custom Orders and Alterations

Custom orders are welcomed and encouraged. Mer and Dani will work with the client's vision to create the piece they're dreaming of, provide design consultation and recommendations for materials, cost, etc. if needed, and provide the opportunity to make changes to the design as it comes together. Most stock items can be lengthened or shortened at no additional cost, and many can be custom-made in a different color or metal.

Wholesale and Consignment

Wholesale and consignment inquiries are welcome. A wide variety of pieces are available, including many not listed on the website, and pieces can be provided at a price point that will benefit any retail establishment and its customers.

Additional Information

Additional information regarding the company, our generous return policy, and international orders is available on our website, SweetTarragon.com.
